PURPOSE & LEGAL BASIS FOR COLLECTING & PROCESSING PERSONAL DATA

Scoil an Athar Tadhg collects and processes personal data (as listed above) about pupils and parents / guardians for a variety of purposes and relies on a number of legal grounds to do so. Scoil an Athar Tadhg requires this personal data to perform our duties and responsibilities and to comply with our legal and statutory obligations. In addition, Scoil an Athar Tadhg requires this personal data to pursue the legitimate interests of the school and our dealings with relevant third parties (see below). The legitimate interests upon which we rely is the effective operation and management of Scoil an Athar Tadhg and managing the education and welfare needs of our pupils. Scoil an Athar Tadhg processes personal data on the basis of the following lawful purposes:

a) Legal Obligation

Scoil an Athar Tadhg collects and process personal data to comply with our legal and statutory obligations, including, but not limited to those under the Education Act 1998 (as Amended), the Education (Welfare) Act 2000, the Education for Persons with Special Needs (EPSN) Act 2004, the Health Act 1947, the Children First Act 2015, the Child Protection Procedures for Primary and Post-Primary Schools (revised 2023), the Teaching Council Acts 2001-2015 and Safety Health and Welfare at Work legislation

b) Legitimate Interests

Scoil an Athar Tadhg may also process personal data to:

- Enable Pupils to develop to their full potential and meet the educational, social, physical and emotional requirements of the pupil,
- Enable Parents and Guardians to be contacted in the case of emergency, school closures and, health and safety issues,
- To inform Parents and Guardians of their child's educational progress,
- Secure and benefit from the support and services of relevant third parties.

c) Consent

Scoil an Athar Tadhg sometimes process some of pupils' personal data with consent e.g. photograph which may be displayed on the school's website or on social media platforms or in the print media. Please note that consent can be withdrawn at any time by contacting the school.

HOW PERSONAL DATA IS COLLECTED

(i) Pupils

Scoil an Athar Tadhg collect personal data about pupils through the enrolment process and/or through expressions of interest in relation to enrolment. Additional personal data is collected from third parties, including former schools and through school activities and general interaction(s) during the course of the pupil's time at Scoil an Athar Tadhg.

(ii) Parents and Guardians

Scoil an Athar Tadhg collect personal data about parents and guardians through the enrolment process or expressions of interest for enrolment. We collect additional personal data through general interaction during the course of the pupil's time at Scoil an Athar Tadhg.

PERSONAL DATA AND THIRD PARTIES

Scoil an Athar Tadhg may receive from, share and/or transfer personal data to a range of third parties such as the following:

- The Department of Education
- TUSLA / the Child and Family Agency
- The National Council for Special Education
- National Educational Psychological Service (NEPS)
- Department of Employment Affairs and Social Protection and/or other state benefit providers
 - An Garda Síochána

Information re school retention periods can be found in our data protection policy.

TRANSFER OF PERSONAL DATA OUTSIDE THE EUROPEAN UNION

Scoil an Athar Tadhg may transfer the personal data we collect to countries outside the EU. Where there is no adequacy decision by the European Commission in respect of any such country that means that that country is deemed not to provide an adequate level of protection for your data. However, to ensure personal data does receive an adequate level of protection we will in such circumstances put in place appropriate measures such as the use of model contractual clauses as approved by the European Commission to ensure personal data is treated by those third parties in ways that are consistent with respect to EU and Irish Laws on Data Protection.

INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS

Individuals have several rights under GDPR which in certain circumstances are limited and/or constrained. These individual rights include the right – free of charge and subject to any limitations as may apply – to:

1. Request a copy of the personal data held about the individual;
2. Rectify any inaccurate personal data held about the individual;
3. Erase personal data held about the individual;
4. Restrict the processing of individual personal data;
5. Object to the use of individual personal data for our legitimate interests;
6. Receive individual personal data in a structured commonly used and machine-readable format and to have that data transmitted to another data controller.

If you wish to exercise any of these rights please contact us at the school as outlined.
